Dropped From Government Payroll, Kaiser's Former Chiefs Out of Luck

(Correspondence of Associated Press) BERLIN, July 7-No one in Gernany sighs more fervently for "the good old days" of the kaiser than the former army officer. Forced off the government payroll by the reducion in the army, untrained for work other than soldiering, and so generaldisliked by the population that he has difficulty in finding any kind of employment, the officer's lot in demoratic Germany is a hard one. His pre-war world. in which he strutted ways been a moderate body. Now it about as the privileged pet of his imperor, has been utterly destroyed.

Many have been reduced to axreme councad straits. The middle axed ex-officer gets a pension of 3800 marks a year, but that is only about a fifth of the amount required to maintain a family. So argent is their need that a movemen has been et on tool to form an exofficers association for the purpose of induccils, has made the Irish language ing the government to provide them with land and subsidies
